

“ Death by Alcohol: The Sam Spady Story paints a very realistic picture of how binge drinking is glamorized in American college culture. It is my hope that this film will help combat this type of peer pressure, and educate viewers about the dangers associated with excessive and irresponsible consumption. If this happened to Sam - one of our best and brightest - it could happen to anyone.”

- Christian J. Miele
Coordinator for Fraternity & Sorority Life, Towson University
Towson, Maryland