

Angel Among Angels

You are now an angel among angels
Your joy for life and laughter
Spreading from one destination
Traveling near and afar

You graced us with pictures and words
That will forever lie within our hearts
From here to there memories
Will give many ease and blissful dreams
You are now an angel among angels

How did we know the impact of such radiance
The gift of hand upon paper and soul
Words of intelligence upon our sight
From one place to another

You have touched so many spirits and lives
I am glad to know that there is another
Angel Among Angels
